

Director

ADAM SALKY

Adam's Netflix thriller, INTRUSION, was the number one streaming movie worldwide the week of its release with over 42 million hours of viewership. Adam's feature film, I SMILE BACK, features Sarah Silverman's critically acclaimed, award-winning dramatic performance, which was nominated for a 2016 Screen Actors Guild Award for outstanding performance by a Female Actor in a Leading Role. Adam's first feature, DARE (based on the viral 2005 short with over 15 million views) is a Grand Jury Prize Nominee of the 2009 Sundance Film Festival. Adam's films have premiered in competition at Sundance, Toronto, and Deauville. Adam is an alum of the Warner Brothers Television Directors' Workshop and has directed multiple episodes of NBC's "Blindspot," including the season three mid-season return "Hot Burning Flames," their highest budget episode. Adam is a citizen of the United States and Poland, but currently lives in Los Angeles with his wife and two girls of 7 and 5 yrs. He is represented at CAA and Circle of Confusion.
